Numbers remained similar and quality ranged from very plain lightweights to well finished trade and heavy weight lambs. The bulk fell into the 20 to 24/kg cwt categories with large runs of lightweights suitable for the restockers also in the competition. The usual buyers competed in a firm to dearer market.

Trade lambs lifted $5 as the medium and heavy weights ranged from $112 to $133/head or an average price around 514c/kg. There were large runs of very plain lightweight lambs from the western region and these sold to restocker purchases.

Heavy lambs remained firm to $2 dearer as the lighter weights selling to the trade and supermarkets sold from $126 to $133, while the heaviest reached $152/head. These categories attained an average price from 423c for the extra heavy weights to 485c/kg cwt for the lighter weights.

Sheep were again scarce and quality was mixed with the majority carrying little skin value. Values remained solid throughout with the medium and heavy weights selling from $80 to $122 as the heavy weights reached $131/head. The better covered mutton averaged from 407c to 480c/kg cwt.
