Lamb numbers nearly halved and quality ranged from the plainer lightweights to well finished heavy weights together with a sprinkling of Merino lines in the yarding. The bulk penned were heavy lambs, with good runs of extra heavy drafts also offered. Competition for the smaller yarding lifted compared to the last market and most categories sold at dearer levels.

The one pen of new season lambs reached $130/head to average 585c/kg cwt. Lightweight older lambs sold a few dollars either side of firm, while the better finished trade weights lifted $3 to range from $105 to $125/head or an average price from 479c to 489c/kg cwt.

Heavy lambs lifted from $4 to $8 as the lighter weights to the trade and supermarkets ranged from $115 to $126/head. The heavier weights topped at $145/head as these categories attained an average price from 426c to 454c/kg cwt.

Sheep were scarce in the pens and competition remained solid throughout all categories. Medium and heavy weights sold from $81 to $131/head, while the better finished mutton averaged from 389c to 439c/kg cwt.
